2017 Chinatown Melbourne Chinese New Year Festival – Stall Holder Rules & Regulations

1. Stall Allocation at Festival Site

A position within the 2017 Chinatown Melbourne CNY Festivities (hereinafter the Festival) will be allocated to you, the stall holder, by Melbourne Dai Loong Association Organising Management (hereinafter MDLA). Your trading right is limited to the period specified during each trading day and the allocated stall at the Festival. It does not create an form of tenancy or imply the granting of a future right or license. You are strictly not permitted to trade outside the boundaries of your allocated trading area that has been assigned to you by the MDLA. Stall positioning on the site follows a very strict guideline and any Stallholders setting up trading other than the approved position will be shut down and the trading rights will be terminated immediately without any refund or compensation. Hired infrastructure must be left in a clean state at the conclusion of the event as deemed by MDLA. An additional fee to cover cleaning will be incurred if the infrastructure is not deemed to be in an appropriate state.

2. Products offered for sale

A list of the total range of products/services for sale or promoted must be provided by the Stall holder and be approved by MDLA and the City of Melbourne Council (hereinafter Council). You are not permitted to sell anything that has not been approved by MDLA/Council. You may apply in writing for new items to be added to your trading rights and this will be reviewed. You will be notified of the decision.

3. Behavior/Language/Noise

MDLA does not tolerate violent, anti social, hostile, noisy, offensive, aggressive, foul language and/or behavior. This may include aggressive spruiking or noisy trading activity that promotes antisocial ideas. If breached, your trading rights can be terminated immediately and you will be banned from future stall trading in Melbourne's Chinatown. Consumption of alcohol and smoking is NOT permitted at your site. All stallholders must at the end of the event, comply with the requirements of any legislation applicable to them, including the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004.

4. Electrician

MDLA Site Electrician will be on site to regulate your power usage. If your equipment is found to be using too much power, is deemed faulty or unsafe, MDLA Site Electrician will shut down the offending equipment. This decision is final, All electrical equipment and power leads must have a current electrical test and tag.

5. Waste management

At the end of trading, anything left on your site will be regarded as rubbish and be cleared from your site. Stallholders are obliged to keep their stall/surrounds clean and tidy throughout the event. All rubbish and waste produced must be disposed of in the bins provided by the event. Items must be disposed of in the manner required by the event's waste management program. Trade waste is the responsibility of the stallholder. All site holders are responsible for their own liquid waste and must dispose of this waste appropriately outside the event precinct. All stallholders must consider using packaging materials that are environmentally biodegradable for all forms of food/beverage containers and giveaways. The site surface must be left by the trader in a clean state at the conclusion of the event as deemed by MDLA Management. An additional fee to cover cleaning will be incurred if the site is not deemed in an appropriate state.

6. Insurance

You are required to maintain a current $20 million public liability insurance extended to cover 'Anywhere in Australia' or to specifically cover 'market stall' named on the policy. A valid copy of the Certificate of Currency must be shown before the commencement of trading.

7. Car Access, Setting Up & Parking

Car access into the Festival area will only be allowed between specific times to load and unload your goods before and after the event times. The MDL will issue stall holder car passes to allow you access through the street closures during specific times. There is no onsite parking. You must leave the area as soon as you have unloaded or loaded. Or when requested by the Event Management.

8. Attendance & Absentees

This Festival is an all-weather event. The costs for its establishment and undertaking will be incurred whether rain or shine. Therefore, there is no refund for non-attendance. Cancellation of your stall and refund will only be accepted prior to 13th January, 2017. Otherwise, there will be no refunds.

9. Stall Holders Activities & Rights

If you are a Stall holder selling food, you are also required to strictly follow our Food Stall Holder Rules. You will need to follow the Rules and Regulations as stipulated by the Council and have them in place; your stall will be inspected regularly by Council Staff, from the Health and Street Trading Department and also from MDLA Organising Management. Any non-compliance may result in your food stall being shut down immediately without any compensation. Stall holders comply with all related sections of the Fair Trading Act 1990 in the conduct of the stall site. Stall holders must not sell alcohol (unless permitted), offensive materials or illegal goods. Stall holders selling food must complete a Food Stall layout form. You are not permitted to advertise, transfer, sell, sublease or share your trading space to any other person or legal entity. Your trading right at the Chinatown Melbourne CNY Festivities, in conjunction with any invoice(s) issued can be canceled or withdrawn by MDLA Organising Management before the stipulated commencement date of the trading, with or without prior notice.

10. Festival Management

Stall holders must comply with any instruction given by the Festival Organisers through the Stall Manager or other authorized agents or the Council.

11. Indemnification

The Stall holder agrees to indemnify and keep indemnified and to hold harmless the MDLA and Council its servants and agents from and against all actions, costs, charges, expenses and damages whatsoever which may be bought or claimed against them, arising out of or in relation to this Agreement, provided that this indemnity shall not apply where such actions, costs, expenses and demands have arisen due to the negligence of the MDLA and Council, its servants and agents. That the MDLA and Council may, at the Organiser discretion and for any reason/s including, but not limited to, public safety, resolve to temporarily close part of, or the entire Festival site during the scheduled period of the Festival's scheduled set up and operation. You hereby acknowledge the MDLA and Council's right to take this action and hereby agree that in the event that the MDLA and Council does so, then you will not seek to impose any liability on the MDLA or Council of any nature whatsoever.

12. Promotional Consent

The Stall holder agrees to consent to MDLA and the Council taking photographs of the stall site, Stall holders and staff and to authorize MDLA and Council to publish and use the photographs, in whole or in part, for advertising or marketing purposes for this and any subsequent events and part of the MDLA and Council's current and future general marketing and communication activities.

13. Amendments

These rules may change from time to time as required for the improvement of the conduct of the Festival. Stall holders will be given notice of any changes.

I/We confirm that I/we have read and understand all the above terms and conditions.
